Description:

U.K born in July 2013 Chestnut Farm Flossie is an absolutely stunning solid white female sired by Chestnut Farm Augustus, who has E.P Cambridge Peruvian Caesar in his ancestry.

Chestnut Farm Flossie's dam is Wellground in the Spotlight, an outstanding female who also carries some excellent genetics including Accoyo Killawasi.

Chestnut Farm Flossie has a lovely dense fleece, that has medium frequency and medium amplitude crimp, it is also incredibly bright with a lovely soft handle.

Chestnut Farm Flossie has a lovely dense fleece, that has medium frequency and medium amplitude crimp, it is also incredibly bright with a lovely soft handle.

Flossie is holding on to her fineness as she matures.

she matures.

Flossie has produced several stunning cria and has been an exceptional mother on all occasions.

Flossie will be sold with a mating to our brown stud male Inca Nobleman.

Inca Nobleman is having a very positive impact on our herd, he passes on his positive attributes, adding fineness and density and his offspring have his lovely calm temperament, his very first offspring is our prize winning young male Chestnut Farm Alchemist.

Other Nobleman progeny can be viewed here on farm.

Prizes Won:

4th Junior White Female Northumberland 2014.

Number of Crias bred from female: 5
