Description:

Lane House Obsession 🌟Solid Mid Fawn Potential Stud Male.

This young male has heaps of potential. Being the finest alpaca we have bred to date his fleece stats are exceptional. His fleece is incredibly fine and uniform with great density and brightness.

He stands on a strong compact frame with a nice broad chest, he has a very stylish head type and short muzzle.

He is sired by our Australian import - Kurrawa Legends Bandido, and out of an EP Cambridge Navigator daughter - so some very exciting genetics in this young male.

We are only releasing this young male as we have his sire and half brother who we are retaining, so we have plenty of these genetics in our herd.

This is a great opportunity for a serious breeder wanting to improve and bring their herd to the next level. Very reasonably priced, please message for more details.
