Description:

Lane House Law Enforcer 🌟
Solid White Multiple Champion Potential Stud Male

We are releasing one of our top quality elite males for sale. Law Enforcer is an exceptional young male, his fleece is very fine, dense and uniform with the most beautiful bundling micro staples. It also has excellent brightness and a soft buttery handle. Conformationally this male is very strong, good chest capacity and strong boned. True to type head with excellent fleece coverage from head to toe. Not only does he excel in his fleece and conformational traits, he's also got the most wonderful temperament which i find very important in a breeding male.

All of this put together it's no wonder he's a multiple championship winning male.

He is now ready to be put to work and unfortunately we do not have enough unrelated females to use him over, hence why he is being offered for sale.
