Description:

Lusi Lizzy is an outstanding female who really catches the eye. Her 'look at me' stance in the field and her excellent fleece coverage make her a real stunner. She carries a soft, dense fleece from head to toe. Lizzy has very good conformation with a solid frame and depth of bone. She has award winning genetics on both sides of her pedigree, which show in her overall quality. We are delighted to say that she will have a cria this summer by Inca Optimo, one of the outstanding herd sires from Inca Alpaca. She is easy to handle and halter trained. Enferplex tested. Delivery available.

Name of covering male: Inca Optimo (Black)

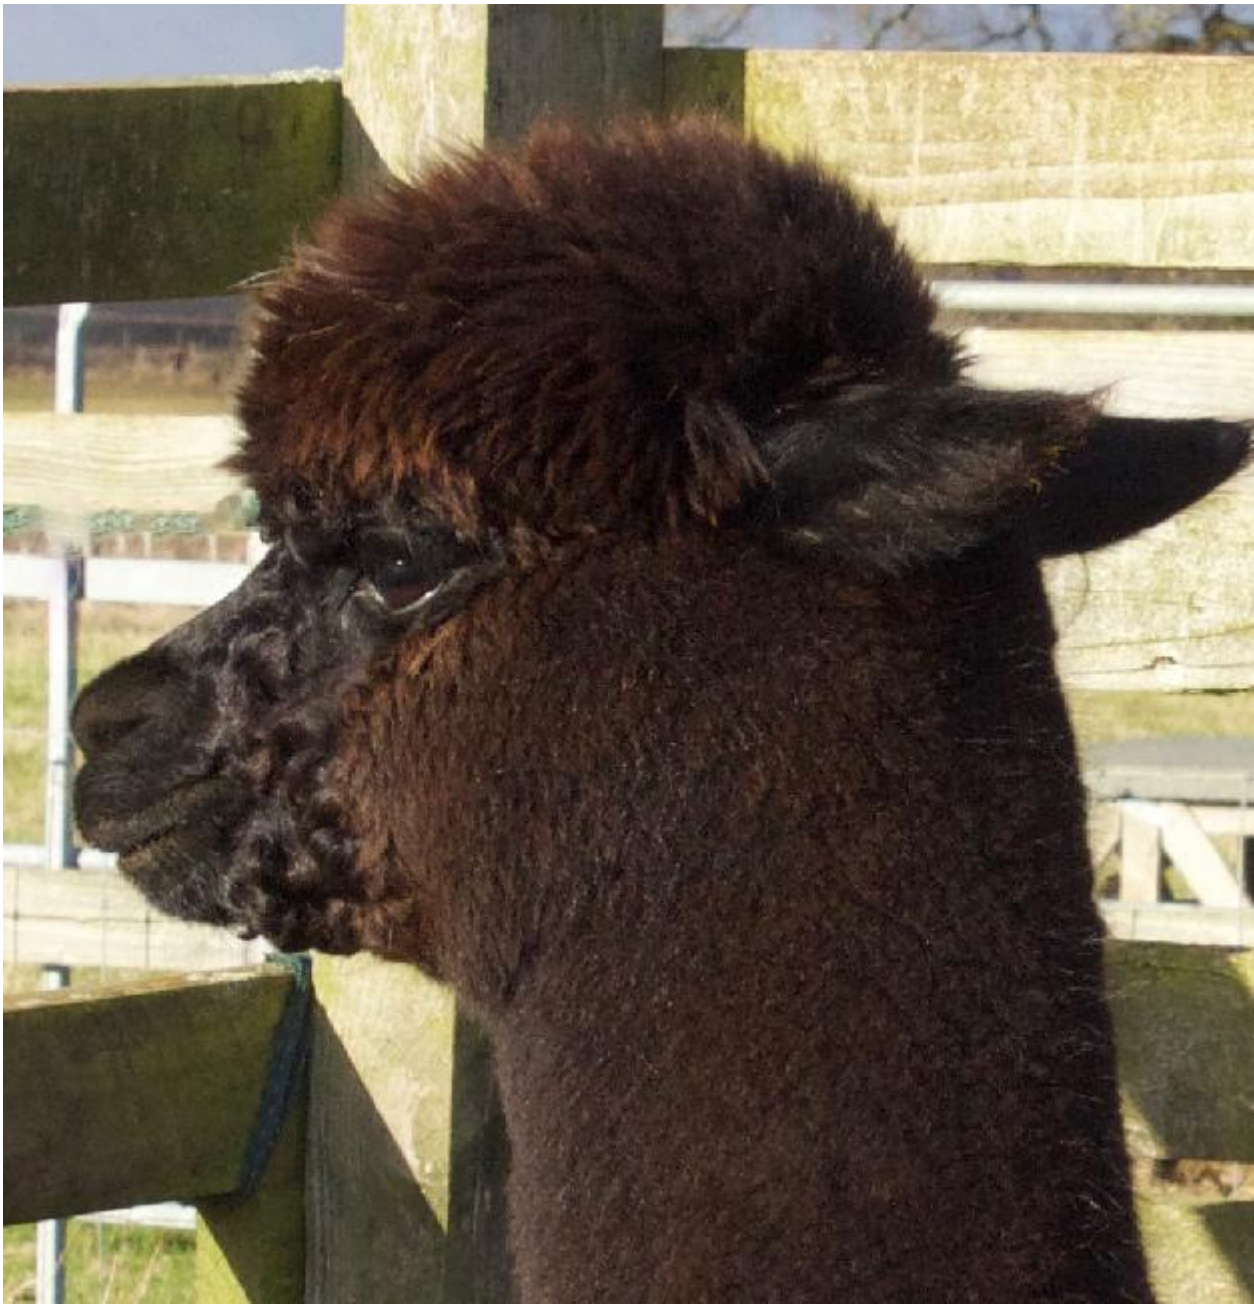

Last Mating Date: 14th June 2023

Estimated Date Cria Due (Pregnant Female): 14th May 2024
