Description:

Willowbrook Picasso is a good natured, young intact male. His sire is Beck Brow The Instigator, who was Champion Brown male at the National Show in 2022.

He has a beautiful golden coloured fleece, which is somewhat darker than the photograph would illustrate. Picasso has great coverage, with a very attractive head type, and oodles of quality fleece that would be ideal for processing into a luxurious yarn, or for crafting.

Picasso is being sold as a non-breeding alpaca, and would make a great pet or trekker. Preferably, we would like him to move to a new home with some of his other field companions. See more listings from Willowbrook Alpacas for details of the other lovely males available (video below). A good discount is offered if a number of males are purchased together.
