Tudor Rose is a very sweet female with a lovely temperament, and the deepest dark brown eyes! She has a correct frame, and displays a very dense and organised fleece. Her sire is the Supreme Champion Valley Alpacas The Diplomat, and her dam is from one of our best performing brown lines that has produced many Champions.

She is currently heavily pregnant to Beck Brow The Instigator who was Champion Brown male at the National Show in 2022. Her female cria, White Rose, from this pairing last year has been sold, soon to move onto pastures new. Her fleece is incredibly bright, long, fine, very dense and highly organised, and we anticipate this cria to have similarly positive attributes.

Tudor Rose has always given birth unaided and produced top quality offspring. Only for sale as we are reluctantly selling our entire herd.

WB Sizlin's Secret Serenity (same dam as Tudor Rose) was a multi-Champion with a very successful show career. She scored 80.5 to win Champion Brown fleece at the National Show, just pipped by the reserve Supreme light champion!
