Description:

Imp is lovely young male who has a rich brown fleece and is very sound in his conformation.

He was shown and did well but just missed out on our very strict criteria for stud males. This does mean he has a very useable fleece which should maintain its quality for processing.

He has been castrated and is well handled and halter trained. He is up to date with all husbandry and a full health record will be provided.

Ideal pet or trekking boy.

Free on farm husbandry training if required and life long on-going support given.

Ideally we would like By Implication to go with his friends Frenzy and Bang the Gong (discount given)

Delivery within 100 miles included (some mileage thereafter)
