Description:

Amethyst is a lovely solid female, standing on a correct frame with a superb fleece to match. She has been severely underutilised in our herd and even now being 10 years of age, still has so much potential as a breeding female.

Amethyst currently has a female cria at foot who is already showing brilliant fleece traits at only a month old.

Amethyst will be sold with her current female cria at foot and pregnant to one of our stud males of your choice (included in price).
