Description:

Annabella is an intelligent and observant alpaca with a natural curiosity. She's a quick learner, always eager to explore her surroundings and discover new things!

A strong and confident member of the herd, Annabella is often the first to investigate any changes or additions to the farm. Her alert nature and gentle demeanour make her a delightful companion.

She consistently produces a high yield of fleece, making her an excellent choice for fibre artists and breeders alike.

Annabella has been mated and spat off to our grand stud Inca Frederico in Summer of 2024, so we look forward to her becoming a first-time mum this year!
