Description:

Sibillini is a beautiful black breeding female with a well balanced frame, great conformation, fabulous head type and a super fine, uniform fleece.

With a stack of great Australian genetics behind her, kicking off with Toft Timogen as her sire she is as impressive on paper as she is in the paddock.

Her fleece is exceptional for a breeding female with her first two fleeces coming in at under 16 microns. Coupled with a low SD gives her a really lovely supersoft handling fleece.

Sibil is currently spitting off to Patou Archer, a very dense son of Patou Snow Goose. These two have already produced an exceptional black female (Patou Lyra) and as such the mating has been repeated.
