Description:

Liv is a beautiful well grown young female with a strong frame and a beautiful, soft handling fleece in a rich brown.

She has a sweet inquisitive personality and is frequently used on Experience visits and visits to nurserys and care homes. I am extremely reluctant to sell this girl but need to reduce the herd size.

She is entered for the Westmorland show on 11th September 2024 so if you are quick to buy you can take her in the ring!

She would make a great asset to an existing breeder with her top genetics, or if you are starting out as a breeder she would get your herd off to a great start with a sweet and easily handled quality girl.

10% discount is offered if you buy 2 or more girls from King Garth Alpacas because they like to stay with friends.

Delivery can be arranged.

On going support and advice is provided for as long as required.
