Description:

Night of the Realm is the offspring of the renowned Snowmass Bronze Royalty of ARW, a multi-champion who has unfortunately passed away. His dam, Ashwood Damson, was sired by Silverstream Czar of Anzac, another celebrated champion. Czar was among the most acclaimed Alpacas to come to the UK, even claiming the title of Huacaya Senior Male Champion at the national show in 2009. Night of the Realm has demonstrated his prowess by winning a championship in fleece at the Cornish Fleece Show in 2021, along with two reserve championships. Now five years old, Night of the Realm has begun his role as a stud at Ashwood this year. Regrettably, we have a limited number of colored females to fully utilize his outstanding genetic potential.
