Description:

Beck Brow Wheels on Fire is a very attractive-looking male. He is very balanced and presents himself well with perfect conformation in every way.

This is hardly surprising with the beautiful Cambridge Lady Gaga as his dam. Gaga is an amazing female, who even in full fleece, could pass as a two-year-old at 15 years of age. She has retained an enviable uniformity of micron and has no visible transition lines.

His sire is Beck Brow Vidal, who having done well in the show ring himself, is producing some outstanding progeny for us (especially our 2023 drop where he has more progeny to assess).

Wheels on Fire has retained a really good level of fineness in his second fleece, coupled with high follicular density (exhibited as a very well-organised fleece) along with brightness and softness of hand.

Wheels on Fire has started work in 2023. He will be largely kept in-house but pregnant females may be available.
