Description:

This boy arrived in the UK from Snowmass April 2023 and he has exceeded all expectations.

Ron's sire, Snowmass Oblivion is the anchor of Snowmass white production herd. The line descending through his sire, Snowmass Defiance [now with EP Cambridge in Australia] has consistently produced the most uniform animals in the herd measured by SD.

His Dam is of incredible calibre and already produced 2 stud males for Snowmass so his dam is a true 'dam of sires'.

Ron has one of the best phenotype's I have ever seen with incredible bone, head type and confirmation. His fourth fleece continues to display all the qualities I could have hoped for. Superb length, fineness, handle, uniformity, density and brightness.

An exciting male with completely unique genetics in the UK.

His genotype is ee Aa so lots of potential in whites and colour.

His first cria in the UK are due in May 24
