Description:

Shogun is a very strong boned alpaca on a macho frame, with sound confirmation and phenotype. Shogun was reserve champion brown male at the BAS National Show a few years ago, and his fleece quality still shines through. He has great density, coming from his sire, Fowberry Nobility. He has a bold stance and appears a 'stand out' in the paddock. He is extremely keen for work, we have never known a male know his job better than this boy! Shogun has produced grey offspring and so we are excited to see the impact he will have on our herd, whatever colour comes out...it will be quality.
