Description:

In 2016 we introduced Valley Alpacas The Diplomat to our stable of herd sires here at Furze Park Alpacas. Since the moment he won Supreme Champion Huacaya in 2010 and then bred, The Diplomat has made a highly positive impact here in the UK.

The Diplomat displays a very impressive and productive phenotype which is passed onto his crias at a high rate of consistency.

This herd sire is a well grown and strong male that presents very well. His fleece is exceptionally dense and the fibres well aligned. Not only are the fibres still fine but the staple length this male grows on the saddle and up the next is impressive and rare in elite white sires.

A number of his crias have now won Supreme Champion awards at UK shows and we expect this trend to continue. The phenotype and superb progeny results makes Valley Alpacas The Diplomat a clear and reliable choice for the discerning breeder.
