Description:

Beck Brow Centre Stage really has lived up to his name with an impressive show record. He has taken Supreme Championships at every age, from Junior through to his most recent Supreme Championship award as an Adult.

He is an eye-catching male, looking very much like his sire; National Supreme Champion Beck Brow Glory Daze, and grand-sire Bozedown Blaze of Glory. He has very good strength of bone and balance with a strong macho look to him.

However, it is his fleece that is truly exceptional. Extremely fine, very uniform in micron, and with outstanding follicular density. All this is showcased in a highly organised fleece, that breaks down in to tiny mico bundles.

Add to this a very calm and gentle temperament and this male might just have it all.

Beck Brow Centre Stage has females pregnant for birthing 2025. He is currently in-house but pregnant females will be being released.
